2.1.2 A review application has been made by Mr Edward Davis on behalf of the Environmental Protection team of Environmental Health, which relates to the prevention of public nuisance licensing objective. A copy of the application for the review is attached to this report. Representations in the form of a petition from twenty two interested parties (local residents living in the vicinity of the premises) have also been made in support of the review application.

2.1.3 The premise is situated at 215-219 High Road, Harrow, Middlesex HA3 5EE, an area populated by both commercial and residential premises. A map of the area is attached to this report.

2.2 Representations

Mr Edward Davis of the Environmental Protection team has submitted the review application. A copy of this representation is attached to this report. Representations in the form of a petition from twenty two interested parties (local residents living in the vicinity of the premises) have also been made in support of the review application.

2.3 Consultation

The review application was advertised at the council offices and on the premises in accordance with the requirements under the Licensing Act 2003.

2.4 Licensing Guidance Implications

The government has issued Guidance pursuant to section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003 that deals with reviews in paragraphs 11.1 – 11.29. The Guidance includes the following in relation to determining whether a review application is a repetition, as referred to in paragraph 2.5.5 below –

“Licensing authorities are expected to be aware of the need to prevent attempts to review licences merely as a second bite of the cherry following the failure of representations to persuade the licensing authority on earlier occasions. It is for licensing authorities themselves to judge what should be regarded as a reasonable interval in these circumstances. However, the Secretary of State recommends that more than one review originating from an interested party should not be permitted within a period of twelve months on similar grounds save in compelling circumstances or where it arises following a closure order.”

It also includes the following to be used as guidance when dealing with reviews from Interested Parties:

‘Where the request originates with an interested party – e.g. local resident, residents association, local business or trade association – the licensing authority must first consider whether the complaint made is relevant, vexatious, frivolous or repetitious.’

2.5 Legal Implications

2.5.1 The Licensing Panel is required to hold a hearing to consider the review application and any relevant representations. The hearing must be held in accordance with the Licensing Act 2003 (Hearings) Regulations 2005.

2.5.2 Having considered the representations from all parties, the Panel has to determine the application for the review of the premises licence. The Panel is required to take such of the steps listed below at 2.5.3 (if any), as it considers necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives. If the Panel does not consider that any of the steps listed at 2.5.3 are necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives then it should do nothing.

In coming to a view about whether such a step in 2.5.3 is necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives, the Panel would need to take into account the review application, any relevant representations, the evidence given at the hearing, the representations made by the parties, the provisions of the Licensing Act 2003, the Guidance issued by the Secretary of State and the Council's Licensing Policy.

2.5.3 Where it considers it necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives, the options available to the Panel are:

1. to modify the conditions of the Licence;
2. to exclude a licensable activity from the scope of the licence;
3. to remove the designated premises supervisor;
4. to suspend the licence for a period not exceeding three months;
5. to revoke the licence;

and for this purpose the conditions of the licence are modified if any of them is altered or omitted or any new conditions added.

2.5.4 Any modified conditions should be practical and enforceable.

2.5.5 The licensing authority may at any time reject any ground for review specified in an application for review if it is satisfied that either: (a) the ground is not relevant to one or more of the four licensing objectives; or (b) the application is made other than by a responsible authority and the ground is frivolous, vexatious, or a repetition. A ground for review is a repetition if a reasonable interval has not passed since an earlier review application or the grant of the premises licence and the ground is identical or substantially similar to: (i) a ground in the review which has already been determined; or (ii) a representation considered by the licensing authority at the time of first granting the premises licence; or (iii) a representation that would have been made when the application for the premises licence was first made but for the fact that it was excluded by the prior issue of a provisional statement in respect of the premises.

2.5.6 If any grounds of review are rejected on the basis set out in 2.5.5, the application for review is taken to be rejected to that extent.

2.5.7 In addition to determining the application in accordance with the legislation, Members must have regard to –

- The common law rules of natural justice.
- The provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998.
- The considerations in section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998.

2.5.8 By section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998, the Panel is required to act in a way that is compatible with rights under the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Freedoms. The following provisions of the European Convention seem relevant: Article 6 (right to a fair trial) Article 14 (prohibition of discrimination) and Article 1 of the First Protocol (protection of property).

2.5.9 In relation to section 17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, this states:

‘without prejudice to any other obligation imposed on it, it shall be the duty of each authority to which this section applies to exercise its various functions with due regard to the likely effect of the exercise of those functions on, and the need to do all that it reasonably can to prevent, crime and disorder in its area.’

2.6 Community safety

2.6.1 Refer to the Licensing objectives, and Section 17 Crime and Disorder Act 1998 as noted above.

The Borough Commander has not requested a review of the premises licence nor made any representation in relation to the review application made by the Environmental Protection team.

2.7 Financial Implications

No financial implications

2.8 Risk Management Implications

If any party is aggrieved with the decision on one of the grounds set out in Schedule 5 to the Licensing Act 2003, they can appeal to a Magistrates’ Court. Such appeals are by way of re-hearing. The Appeal period is 21 days from notification of the decision.

Dear Sirs,

Reference: ISHQ 215-219 High Road, HA3 5EE

Thank you for sending me diary sheets in connection with the noise and disturbance from the above property.

I understand there is now an abatement notice on these premises. Since then the noise has quietened slightly. There is still the sound of drum beats from the premises which goes right through to my house on the opposite side of the High Road. There is still the constant sound of people talking, raised voices when they are saying good bye or greeting friends as well as loud laughter. There is also the sound of cars revving up when people are leaving. This can go on until 2 – 3 am at week-ends. This means I have disturbed sleep or nights when I can't get to sleep.

Some of the residents of this area have sent a petition to your department. Other residents have individually contacted you. I understand that the Licensing Department are going to have a review on the above restaurant, so I hope my diary and these comments will be passed on to them.

I am enclosing my diary sheets, as I am going away tomorrow for two weeks and won't be able to do any more monitoring.

Yours faithfully

Our concerns about the late hours kept by the restaurant ISHQ.

We, the residents of High Road, Harrow, are concerned about what is happening about the restaurant at 215-219 High Road. Many of us are either retired pensioners or households with young families. The lack of sleep and disturbed nights is having its toll on us all.

Our concerns are:

- 1 Their use of the forecourt of the restaurant as a sitting and smoking area every evening until about 2 a.m.
- 2 The music played during that time – the level of sound.
- 3 The noise of customers talking and laughing.
- 4 The noise of cars revving up and car doors slamming after midnight.
- 5 Groups of people congregating on the pavement, either waiting for their lifts or just greeting or saying good bye to their friends.
- 6 The noise of the restaurant workers clearing up after the customers leave, usually about 2.00 to 2.30 a.m.

We will hand this petition to the appropriate department of the Council.
