- 3) The prevention of public nuisance.

In the past 18 months there have been numerous calls for police to urgently attend the venue and deal with allegations of assaults, theft of personal property and members of public being at risk. There have been occasions whereby noise has caused the intervention of police and other enforcement agencies to prevent further nuisance to members of public. The manager who is also the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) has admitted to using business practices that amount to tax evasion. The DPS has been accorded several opportunities to get a grip on the establishment and operate it in a more professional and trouble-free manner. These premises have come to the attention of police whereby all the parties involved have been drunk. There have been incidents whereby the door supervisors have chosen not to proceed with any allegation that they have allegedly been victims of assault. This prevents proper investigation of any incident where excessive force may have been used.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application
(please read guidance note 2)

CRIS no. 2001728/13 refers.

On 8th FEBRUARY 2013 at approximately 00:30 there was a fight at the venue which started in the toilet and spilled over into the bar area. There was evidence that indicated that a cannister of CS spray had been discharged during the incident. There were no witnesses who came forward with any descriptions that could assist to any identify any possible suspects. Therefore no one arrested or charged. It took seven days before the CCTV was made available to police.

CRIS no. 2403810/13 refers.

On the 14th of February 2013 there was fight at the venue. The injuries suffered by the victim amounted to cuts to the lips & tongue. There were bruises to face and other parts of body. The victim suffered loose teeth as result of being punched in the face. Initially police were informed that the incident had been captured by the CCTV system at the venue. There were at three documented attempts by the OIC to have the CCTV images downloaded but it appears that the DPS and some of other staff failed to show any urgency in dealing with the requests. On the 13th of March 2013 when the OIC personally attended the venue, the DPS informed police that for some reason the CCTV were irretrievable due to being lost from the CCTV system. Although the suspect was charged with a lesser charge of common assault, the DPS was not at all helpful in the investigation.

CAD nos 679, 713, 764, 777 and 809 of 9th March 2013 are all phone calls made to police between the time of 01:29 and 01:47 hours. They were about a disturbance at the venue. The caller alleged at various times that there were males outside the venue waiting to beat him up. Allegedly one of the males who had assaulted the caller happened to be husband of his girlfriend. Eventually none of the persons wished to make any allegations. CAD 679:09MAR2013 clearly states that all the parties involved are intoxicated.

CRIS no. 2003016/13 refers.

On the 9th of March 2013 at approximately 23:45 hours, there was a drunk male who had been evicted from the venue. The male claimed that the door supervisors had been very heavy handed and sworn at him. This resulted in him throwing barrier into the beer garden area. The suspect male was extremely drunk. His behaviour could have caused injuries to other members of public and damage to public property. Yet the door supervisors or the management of the Masons Arms did not wish to substantiate any allegations.

CRIS no 2004892/13 refers.

This is an allegation of harassment that occurred between the dates of 15th April 2013 and 23rd April 2013. It was alleged that the victim was approached by a gang of Romanian males who asked to be lent some money, clothes and the use of his car. The victim remembers lending them £20. On another occasion when the victim did not comply with their demands, he was told it was seen as an act of provocation. They told him that they knew where he lived. The victim also observed a strange vehicle parked outside his house. When he spoke to the suspects, they told that it was not difficult to find him. On the 23rd of April, the suspects demanded that he hand over his belt and tried to snatch it off him. In the process the belt was damaged. The victim wished to remain anonymous as he alleges that the Masons Arms pub manager knows the this gang of Romanian males. The investigation was discontinued as the victim would not disclose the identity of the suspects and was not very co-operative with progressing the investigation to a suitable conclusion.

CRIS no. 2008377/13 refers.

On the 13th of July 2013, a very drunk male had been detained by the door supervisors. It was initially alleged that the male had been evicted from the venue for disorderly behaviour and he had assaulted one of the door supervisors. The drunk suspect had allegedly punched the victim in the face causing the skin on the bridge of the nose to split. There were signs of swelling to the area and blood was flowing freely from the nostrils. In an interview under caution, the suspect denied punching the victim. The victim declined to substantiate any allegation of the assault and described his injuries as minor. As a result there was no further action taken against the suspect and the crime report was closed as an undetected allegation.

CRIS no. 2010448/13 refers.

On the 1st of September 2013, a drunk male was found injured on the roadside near Masons Arms. The highly intoxicated male had also been drinking at the venue at some point during the night. He had been assaulted in the street. During the incident he had fallen backwards and had suffered a cut in the back of his head. He was also bleeding from the head, nose and ear region. The victim had been punched in the face causing to fall back and bang his head on the ground. In this state of intoxication he was a risk to himself and any others who were associated with him. According to the CCTV footage the victim was assaulted shortly after he left the venue.

Following the above mentioned incident, on the 30/10/2013, the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) of Masons Arms PH, Ms Cristina Golescu accepted an action plan designed to help her deal with the incidents of crime and disorder emanating from her premises. A copy of the letter encompassing the actions has been included with this application.

CRIS no. 2013394/13 refers.

On the 10th of November 2013, at approximately 01:00 hours there was a call to police stating that there was a fight outside the Masons Arms. There was an intoxicated male standing nearby with a swollen upper lip. He stated that he tried to enter the premises a little while earlier and the door supervisor had barred him. He alleged that he had been assaulted by the door supervisors. Because this male was intoxicated it was very difficult to obtain an accurate account of how he had suffered his injuries and matter was closed as an undetected crime because the victim failed to return to the police station to assist with the investigation.

CRIS no. 2011011/13 refers.

On 15th September 2013 at approximately 01:00 hours a customer at the venue had their handbag stolen in which she had placed her mobile phone. The time had been 01:00 hours and the victim had just finished taking pictures with her iPhone and placed in her handbag. The handbag was placed near one of the corner seats at the venue.

CRIS no. 2012759/13 refers.

On 27th October 2013 at 00:15 hours, a customer had been refused entry. Apparently this customer has in the past caused criminal damage at the venue. The door supervisor did not allow this person entry and the male returned a short and pointed a firearm at the door supervisor and fired it. It appeared to be a BB gun. The DPS was only able to provide a picture of the suspect from a post on a Facebook account. The DPS has never attended any Pubwatch meetings to discuss the banning of this person with the other pub licensees in the vicinity.

On Sunday 26th November 2013, Harrow Council Environmental Health Officers heard loud music emanating from the venue because the doors were left wide open. One of the conditions on their premises licence is that noise or vibration will not be permitted to come out of the venue and become a potential noise nuisance to the local residents. The DPS was interviewed under caution regarding this incident. She was not able to offer any defences and fully admitted the violation. For this incident the DPS was given an official Licensing Warning on the 12th of December 2013.

On 30th December 2013, there was another noise nuisance complaint from a local resident CAD no. 309:30DEC13 refers. Police attended and dealt with the situation. In a report created by PC 307QA Thomas Watson, he stated that there 12 to 15 people still on the premises. 6 to 8 people were still seated at a table a few metres from the bar. There were at least 4 - 6 containers of full pints on the table. There were 1 or 2 pint containers still on the bar that were 3/4 full. The premises is allowed to sell alcohol until midnight on a Sunday and is supposed to close by 00:30. The DPS was very reluctant to ask these customers to leave and the persons were escorted off the premises by 01:00 hours. CCTV footage of the venue was viewed and it was apparent that no drinks were served from the bar after midnight. However neither the DPS nor the door supervisors made any attempt to ask customers to leave after the licensed hours. The DPS, Ms Golescu, was interviewed under caution and failed to offer any defence to the incident. Ms Golescu stated that the customers were from the local Traveller Community and always tended to ignore her demands for to leave the premises or to stop making noise. She was reminded of responsibility to uphold the licensing objective of prevention of public. She was reminded that she has to ensure that she is responsible for the conduct of her customers whilst they are on her premises. She admitted that she has trouble controlling certain segment of her

On 26th February 2014 as part of Op Secure Streets Day of Action Police and several other partner enforcement agencies visited several venues on Burnt Oak Broadway. There was information via Crimestoppers that the staff of Masons Arms were selling counterfeit spirits and cigarettes. It was alleged that they were also serving homebrewed alcoholic drinks. There was also information that unspecified drugs were being kept under the bar counter. In attendance were police, Trading Standards Officers and HMRC Officers. In all 16 bottles of flavoured Smirnoff seized by customs and excise officers on suspicion of being untaxed spirits.

CRIS no. 2002963/14 refers.

On the 9th March 2014, a customer's phone and four watches were stolen by two other Romanian males. One of them had approached him to use the victim's to make a phone call. Whilst the victim went outside into the beer garden to make the phone call the second suspect stole four watches from his jacket. When victim chased after the second suspect, the first suspect made off with his phone.

The Police respectfully request that the Licensing Sub Committee consider revocation of the premises licence. Failing that consider the following recommendations:-

- 1) Removing the current Designated Premises Supervisor and being replaced by one who will robustly manage the premises in the true spirit of the four licensing objectives.
- 2) Completion of incident books and logs to include training records of staff
- 3) Training records to be kept and regularly updated for all staff
- 4) Reduction of the licensed hours by a minimum of an hour on each day
- 5) Specify a minimum number of door supervisors e.g 1 per 50 customers with a minimum of 5 on days when the premises have live or recorded music being played.
- 5) Amend, delete and add conditions as seen fit by Licensing Sub Committee.

I hereby confirm that I am the above mentioned person. I have been working in my current capacity as the Licensing Officer for the Borough of Harrow since September 2013. The licensed premises of Masons Arms Public House, 75 High Street, Edgware, HA8 7DD has persistently come to the attention of police on several occasions over the past 18 months. On 8th February 2013 at 00:30 hours there was a fight at the venue which started off in the toilets and spilled over into the bar area. There was evidence to suggest that a canister of CS spray (pepper spray) had been discharged during the incident. The police officers who had attended the scene stated that they recognised the distinctive smell of CS spray that lingered in the air. They also recognised the burning sensation kin their nostrils. Nobody was able to identify the suspect. It took the management seven days to provide CCTV footage of the incident. Thus no one was arrested or charged with the allegation and the matter was closed as such. (Crime report number 2001728/13 refers.)

On the 14th of February 2013 there was a fight at the venue. The injuries suffered by the victim amounted to cuts to the lips and tongue, bruises to the face and other parts of the body and loose teeth as a result of being punched. Initially police were informed that the incident had been captured by the CCTV system at the venue. There were at least three documented attempts by the investigating officer to have the images downloaded but the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) and the other failed to show any urgency in dealing with the requests. On the 13th of March 2013 when the investigating officer personally attended the venue, the DPS informed police that the CCTV footage was irretrievable because it had been lost from the system. Although the suspect was eventually charged with the less serious allegation of Common Assault, the DPS was not at all helpful in the investigation.

On the 9th of March 2013, in the space of 18 minutes, between the times of 01:29 and 01:47 hours there were five calls made to police. The caller alleged that there were males outside the venue waiting to beat him up. One of the males was allegedly the husband of his girlfriend. Eventually none of parties involved, wanted to pursue any allegation. It was noted on one of the Computer Aided Despatch (CAD) reports that all parties involved were intoxicated. There is no mentioned any actions taken by the management of the venue to alleviate the matter.

The suspect male was extremely drunk. His behaviour could have caused injuries to other members of public and damage to public property. This action by the door supervisor curtailed a full and thorough investigation of the allegation. ( Crime Report no. 2003016/13 refers.)

They will however be available for the committee at the hearing should they be required.

All the above incidents support my belief that Ms Cristina Golescu is unable to keep order and control in the licensed premises known as Masons Arms Public House, 75 High Street, Edgware, HA8 7DD. Therefore she is unsuitable to remain in the role of the Designated Premises Supervisor [REDACTED]
