

Cabinet – 21 April 2015 – Question not reached

Questioner: Councillor Barry Macleod-Cullinane

Asked of: Councillor Anne Whitehead, Portfolio Holder for Adults and Older People

Question: “Can you give me an assurance that both this administration and you as the new portfolio holder are as committed to the personalisation agenda as your predecessors?”

Written Response: I can re-assure my colleague that we are equally committed to giving real choice and control to service users and their carers and to continuing the Council’s good work to date under the personalisation agenda.

The administration has further supported the development of MyCep (Harrow Council’s co-developed online market place for vulnerable adults) towards the next stage of the personalisation.

Questioner: Councillor Barry Macleod-Cullinane

Question: “What steps are you taking to ensure that Harrow takes advantage of the new opportunities afforded by the Government’s commitment to devolution so as to improve Adult social care?”

Written Response: It is very early in the commitment to devolution but we will be closely monitoring developments and will ensure that Harrow takes full advantage of any opportunities that are based on improving outcomes.
