This report provides information required by the Office of the Schools Adjudicator on an annual basis.

FOR INFORMATION

Section 2 – Report

The attached appendices provide members of the Forum with details of the report submitted to the office of the schools adjudicator (OSA) on how well the admission arrangements in Harrow are working. The information will form the basis of an annual report from the OSA to the Secretary of State which will also include how fair access is being achieved locally.

The Admission Forum may make a report to the Schools Adjudicator on any area of the admission arrangements for the borough.
